COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

The University offers the following courses of instruction which are given at the Toronto Conservatory of Music:

I

Four lecture courses in Ear Training, History of Music, Score Study, and Musical Form, given by members of the staff of the Toronto Conservatory of Music. (See the Year Book of the Toronto Conservatory of Music.)

II

Tutorial work in Harmony, Counterpoint, and Elementary Fugue, as prescribed in the First and Second Years, given to classes of four by a member of the staff of the Faculty of Music. Two hours a week. For students of the Third Year an additional hour is provided in the Easter term for the study of Orchestration.

SUBJECTS OF THE ANNUAL EXAMINATIONS

In order to qualify for the degree of Bachelor of Music, the candidate must pass the examinations of the First, Second and Third Years, the subjects of which are as follows:

FIRST YEAR

1. Harmony in three and four parts.

2. Counterpoint in two and three parts. No three part counterpoint with combined species will be required, but candidates will be required to add one part to a Canto Fermo in the fifth species, and to write double counterpoint at the 15th.

3. The History of Music from the rise of the Flemish School to the death of Bach and Handel, and excluding composers who died at a later date. In awarding marks, the examiners will require not only accuracy of statement, but some literary style.

4. A viva voce examination at which the candidate will be asked questions of a general nature, and covering in particular a knowledge of the following scores:

BYRD: Christe qui lux es et dies (O Christ Who art the Light and Day) (Oxford Press)

BACH: English Suite No. 2 in G minor (Augener or Schirmer)

PURCELL: Dido and Aeneas (Act II)—edited Dent (Oxford Press).

Candidates will also be given two tests in musical dictation: (a) eight bars in three part counterpoint in the first species; (b) a short test in two parts of a contrapuntal nature. The following examples indicate the approximate degree of difficulty:—

SECOND YEAR

1. Harmony in not more than four parts, including simple part-writing for voices and for string quartet.

2. Counterpoint—strict and free in not more than four parts. Free counterpoint will include simple contrapuntal treatment of a given hymn-tune.

3. Double Counterpoint at the octave, 10th, 12th and 15th. Canon in two parts at the octave, with an independent part. Fugal exposition in not more than four parts to be written on a given subject.

4. The History of Music subsequent to the time of Bach and Handel, including composers whose deaths occurred at a date later than 1760, and earlier than 1910. In awarding marks, the examiners will require not only accuracy of statement, but some literary style.

5. Musical Form and Composition. The simple forms and analysis of the musical sentence. Candidates may be required to extend a given phrase to form a complete sentence written in pianoforte or vocal style.

6. A viva voce examination at which the candidate will be asked questions of a general nature, and covering in particular a knowledge of the following scores:

SCHUBERT: Song Cycle—The Maid of the Mill (Vol. I, Schirmer edition)

BEETHOVEN: String Quartet, Op. 59, No. 3 (Miniature Score—any standard edition)

CHOPIN: Barcarolle (any standard edition)

THIRD YEAR

1. Harmony in not more than five parts, including some original work.
2. Counterpoint in not more than five parts.
3. A fugue in not more than four parts for strings or voices, to be written in the examination room.

4. A general survey of the History of Music from the earliest times to the present day. Candidates will be required to study Dyson's "The Progress of Music" (Oxford University Press) and at the annual examination to write an essay based on some subject, specified by the examiners, and dealt with in this book. Students are recommended also to study H. C. Colles' "The Growth of Music" and as many as possible of the scores listed therein; also Oxford History of Music (Oxford University Press). (See also list on page 12).

5. Musical Form and Analysis. Candidates will be required to bring to the examination room copies of the scores selected for special study (see section 7).

6. Orchestration.

7. A viva voce examination at which the candidate will be asked questions of a general nature, and in particular required:

(a) To show a critical and analytical knowledge of the following scores:

DVORAK: String Quartet in F, Op. 96 (Miniature Score—Lengnick edition)

ELGAR: "For the Fallen" (Vocal score—Novello)

VAUGHAN-WILLIAMS: A London Symphony (Miniature Score—Stainer and Bell)

(b) To play any one of the preludes and fugues from Bach's "Wohltemperirtes Klavier", selected by candidate.

- (c) To transpose a simple piece at sight.
- (d) To read at sight from a full score of a date not later than Mendelssohn.
- (e) To modulate at the keyboard.

Tests equivalent to (b), (c) and (d) will be arranged for singers or players upon orchestral instruments.

8. Each candidate shall submit an original composition of a length sufficient to occupy not less than fifteen minutes in performance. This may be either:

- (a) A work for Chorus and String Orchestra (to which the candidate may, at his own option, add wind instruments) containing a substantial proportion of contrapuntal writing, and some writing for solo voice or voices; or:
- (b) A string quartet in three movements, at least one of which shall be written in Sonata form.

The work must exhibit structural independence and artistic interest and will not be regarded as sufficient solely on the ground that it is free from technical errors.

An exercise that has once been submitted and rejected may not be submitted a second time in amended form unless the Faculty shall have expressly permitted the incorporation, in a new exercise, of a portion of a previous one.

(c) In lieu of the above composition, candidates may present a thesis of not more than five thousand words on some subject connected with musical history or criticism, the subject to be submitted to and approved by the Faculty of Music at the beginning of the academic year.

In awarding marks for this thesis the examiners will require that it show not only accuracy of statement but some literary style.

The composition or thesis must be sent to the Secretary of the Faculty not later than the first of April, accompanied by a declaration that it is the candidate's own unaided work.

Candidates for the degree may defer presenting this composition or thesis until a subsequent annual examination, in which case the fee for the examination shall be ten dollars ($10.00).

(d) Candidates who hold Licentiate diplomas of the Toronto Conservatory of Music will not be required to submit an exercise or a thesis.

CONDITIONS FOR ACADEMIC STANDING

To receive credit in any subject of any year, a candidate must obtain at an annual or supplemental examination at least sixty per cent of the examination mark; to be granted second class honours, he must obtain at least seventy per cent, and for first class honours, at least eighty per cent.

To obtain standing in the First Year, a candidate must, at an annual examination, receive credit in all, or all but one, of the subjects prescribed in that year.

To obtain standing in the Second Year or the Third Year, a candidate must, at an annual examination, receive credit in all, or all but one, or all but two, of the subjects prescribed in each year.

EXAMINATIONS

The annual examinations will take place in Toronto during the month of May.

Supplemental examinations will be provided in September for candidates who are conditioned in subjects of the First and Second Years. No supplemental examinations will be provided in September for candidates who are conditioned in subjects of the Third Year.

No supplemental examination will be allowed a candidate in any year, after a period of three years from the date when he obtained standing in that year. Similarly, the exercise must be submitted within three years from the date when a candidate obtains standing in the Third Year.

Applications for the annual examinations must be sent to the Secretary of the Faculty before the fifteenth of March, and for the supplemental examinations before the first of July.
